

EVERETTE E. ELLISTON
Athletics & Beyond Director of Boxing

---

Cell: 720-434-7643

coacheverette@yahoo.com

Direct and supervise all incoming boxers, enrollment, and event planning of boxing tournaments. Supervisor assistant trainer, and office duties such as email, scheduling meetings and events, contacting investors and public of upcoming events.

Denver Boxing legend Ron Lyle mentored Coach Everette and helped him become the Director of Boxing for the Cox/Lyle boxing program at Red Shield Community Center. Under the leadership of Coach Everette boxing tournaments at Red Shield generated a 40% increase in annual revenue. Increase enrollment resulting in higher grants and donations for the boxing and community programs. Coach Elliston is a mentor and father figure for several young men and women and is responsible for developing elite training to create a positive and motivation work environment.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Held the first Gloves Not Guns Program in Colorado for at risk youth.
- Certified USA Boxing Coach Level 3
- Coached the USA Boxing Team in Russia/Ukraine Men/Women Petroleum World Cup. 2011
- Coached at the Olympic Training Center Camp in Colorado Springs. 2010-2011
- Jr. Olympic National Regional Coordinator- Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Arizona 2010
- Coached at several National Boxing Tournaments.
- Coached at Box Office Champion Ship at the Olympic Training Center.
- Currently has two boxers ranked #2 in the US
- Trained a two time Jr. Olympic silver Medalist. 2010-2011
- Coached several national champions
- Coached 6 Ring Side World Champions
- Coaches Boxing Clinician.
- Black Belt in Martial Arts.
- Taekwondo State Champion 1987
- Was the Head Coach of a Competitive Boxing Team for the Salvation Army 2008-2011

I was the Director of the Boxing Program for the Salvation Army

Coach Elliston is a dedicated, sincere and professional in all aspects of service, quality and performance. He is detailed, and processes both hard and soft skills. Everette has effective communications skills and has a very good demonstrated work ethic.