

Executive Director:

Narcy Jackson is a graduate of the Denver Foundation's Executive Directors of Color Institute and JVA Consulting's Executive Directors Academy. Under the leadership of Coach Narcy Athletics & Beyond grew from a $25,000.00 annual budget in 2009 to over $180,000.00 in 2014.

He is a United States Army veteran and his education is in accounting from CU Denver. Mr. Jackson has over 20 years of corporate accounting experience. He is the co-founder and Executive Director of Athletics & Beyond (A&B). A&B focuses on four programming areas; educational success, life skill building, athletic development and career options. Initially, A&B focused primarily on developing students' athletic abilities but it became quite clear that students were lacking the skills to succeed in college and in life. The reality was they were not connecting academics, life skills, community engagement and career development with their athletic ability.

Committees:

- Co-chair on Mayor Michael B. Hancock's Parks and Recreation transition committee
- Denver Public Schools African American Equity Task Force
- City of Denver's My Brother's Keeper Initiative
- Colorado Youth Link and Denver Public Schools 12th Grade Career Expo
- Building Healthy Places (BHP) with the City and County of Denver's Office of Economic Development.

Programs Developed:

- Student Athlete Program (S.A.P) consist of 47 student athletes from 9 school districts
- Strong Women and Gentlemen (S.W.A.G.) Academic Academy
- Montbello Warriors football program (100 student athletes)
- Manual H.S. baseball program (15 student athletes)
- Stapleton Recreation Center (10 – 20 students)
- Girls Empowerment Workshop (average 75 – 150 participants)
- Life Beyond Sports Workshop for young men (average 75 – 150 participants)
- Youth athletic tournaments (football & basketball)
- Youth athletics clinics (baseball, basketball, football and gymnastics)

Awards & Recognition:

- My Brother's Keeper 25 Honorees (2016)
- Colorado Black Chamber of Commerce Non-Profit of the year finalist (2016)
- East Angels Award (2014)